SHOT BY A WOMAN.

With a single-barrel shotgun, Mrs. J. . Miller, living at Bowers Hill, near Norfolk, checked the advance of a tramp upon her home yesterday morning and, it is believed, sent a charge into the man's body that may have resulted fatally for him. The Miller home was approached at daybreak by a man who Mrs. Miller thinks was a negro. She refused him admission and ordered him off the premises. He refused to go. Mr. Miller was absent from home, and Seeing that she meant business, the nvader advanced upon Mrs. Miller menacingly with a razor, and it was then that she aimed the gan at him and fired. The charge, she thinks, struck him in the stomach, for he fell and crawled away into a clump of bushes.

Not caring to endanger herself fur-ther, Mrs. Miller went into the house to wait the return of her husband.

SHOT DRUNKEN FATHER.

Defending himself and mother from the attacks of his drunken father, Albert Messig, jr., 18 years old, shot his father, Albert Messig, a butcher in Elizabeth, N. J., four times yesterday morning.
Two bullets lodged in Messig's head, a third shattered the bone in the right
jaw and a fourth lodged in Messig's right shoulder. Messig is in a critical condition. Immediately after the shooting the boy was locked up. Messig, according to the story told by his son, had been drinking heavily for several weeks past and was almost crazed from the effects of liquor. Yesterday morning he insisted that his wife go driving with him. Sue refused and he rushed at her and attempted to choke her. The boy tried to interfere, and the father pulled a revolver from his pocket. He fired a shot at his wife which went wild. He then pointed the pistol at the son, but before he had time to fire the son wrest

MUSHROOMS IN CAVERNS A novel enterprise, the growing of mushrooms in the limestone caverns of Page county, is now going on with vigor and smoke gray ground. in the "Cave Gardens of Luray," an annex to the celebrated Luray caverns.

nex to the celebrated Luray caverus.

The enterprise was launched by F. K.
Walls, of Aunspolis, Md., who conceived
the idea that the mushroom would come to perfection in the moisture and even temperature of this underground world.

The "Cave Gardens of Luray" have been so arranged by Mr. Walls that the temperature is about 55 degrees the entire season. There growth is very rapid in this salubrious a'mosphere. They bein this salubrious a mosphere. They become far more tender then those found growing wild. This, too, destroys the deadly confusion often arising in the toadstool and mushroom, which annually means the death of many persons. Recent investigations by Mr. Walls show the mushroom to have been a highly prized edible in France in the seventeenth century.

ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY SOLDIERS KILLED.

The Paris Matin published a dispatch from Belgra lest ating that on last Friday night a band of Bosnians who had taken refuge in the mountains blew up with typamite the barracks at Konitzs, a town situated 120 kilometers from the Servian frontier in the Interior of Bosnia. One hundred and twenty soldiers, all Austrians, were killed. Augtrians, were killed.

Servia is getting her delayed war stores at last. Forty carloads have arrived at Belgrade from Saloniki, where they were held up for some time owing to the refusal of the railway to carry them. Seventy carloads more are on the way to Balgrade. The Constantinople correspondent of the London Chronicle says that Austria has occupied an island in the Danube, near the Iron Gates, which is not men-tioned in the Berlin treaty. The correpondent leaves it to be inferred that the island belongs to Turkey. What Would You Do.

In case of a burn or scald what would you do to relieve the pain? Such in-jures are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Ohamber'ain's Salve applied on s soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a very severe one, will cause the parts to heal without leaving a sear. For sale by W. F. Oreighton and Bichard Gibson.

THREE KILLED IN RAID

A raid on an alleged "blind tiger" in Birmingham, Ala., S turday night, cost three lives and one mortal injury. Policeman Little, Mr. Womack and a child of J. W. Barris were fatally injured. Police-men Little and Jones had gone to the suspected place, which is a private residence.

Jones remained in front of the house while Little knocked at the back door, while Little knocked at the back door, and when Womack, who was stopping there, opened it and saw the officer, he began firing. Harris, who owned the house, heard Jones coming from the front and he also began shooting, the officer returning the fire. Harris was fatally shot and his child was struck by a stray ballet. bullet.

Colds and Croup in Children.

"My little girl is subject to colds,"
says Mrs. Wm. H. Serig, No. 41 Fifth St. Wheeling, W. Va. "Last winter
she had a severe spell and a terrible cough, but I cured her with Chamberfain's Cough Remedy without the aid of a doctor, and my little boy has been prevented many times from having the croup by the timely use of this syrup.
This remedy is for sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson. Colds and Croup in Children,
